

Handwriting practice row 1: Four dashed uppercase 'X's on a three-line grid. The first 'X' has a solid dot at the top left and a dashed line starting from it, indicating the stroke order.

Handwriting practice row 2: The word 'fox' in dashed lowercase letters on a three-line grid. A solid dot and a dashed line starting from it are shown for the first 'f' to indicate stroke order. A horizontal bracket is placed under the 'x'.

Handwriting practice row 3: The word 'book' in dashed lowercase letters on a three-line grid. A solid dot and a dashed line starting from it are shown for the first 'b' to indicate stroke order. Horizontal brackets are placed under the 'o' and 'k'.

Handwriting practice row 4: The word 'book' in dashed lowercase letters on a three-line grid. A solid dot and a dashed line starting from it are shown for the first 'b' to indicate stroke order. Horizontal brackets are placed under the 'o' and 'k'.